Pousada dos Lóios* * * * *

Staying the night at the Pousada de Évora, the Loios Convent, means visiting a long distant passed having the privilege of reliving the history of every stone, every object including the simple and rudimental cubicles of the old Canon Regulars' dormitories, which today have been converted into bedrooms with affable decoration.

The walls of the city of Évora which have been classified as a Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO hide in their interiors one of most beautiful Pousadas of Portugal.

This luxurious hotel in Évora is found in the historical centre of the city, between the Gothic Cathedral of Évora and the Temple of Diana.

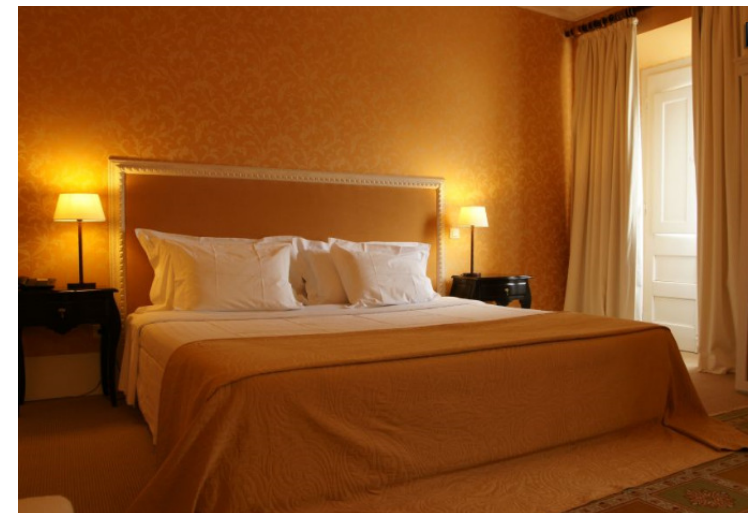

Here you will find that the history, the finesse and the luxury are the vectors that gave rise to this majestic hotel.

The 36 rooms that make up this unit are nearly all different with their own characteristics. On the other hand, they all include wooden furniture, a mini bar, a desk and a private bathroom with bath and shower.

Accommodation

Vitoria Stone Hotel * * * *

Vitória Stone Hotel goes far beyond a name, it is a perfect symbiosis between the place where it is located and the personal touch of Nini Andrade Silva, responsible for the project.

This concept was born from an immense passion for the genuine Alentejo.

We are rooted in the traditional, without leaving sophistication aside. Our goal is to amaze with a bold architecture, with the presence of rustic elements, imposing stones, along with pieces of delicate and sophisticated design.

The stone is present throughout the unit and the entire hotel will be a tribute to important places in this unique region.

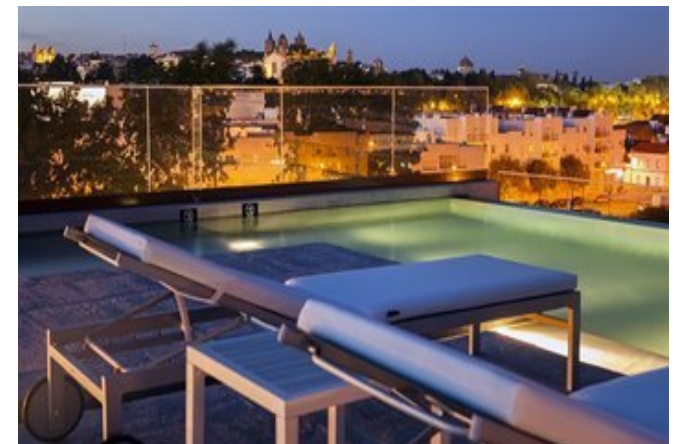

Make yourself at home and live the Alentejo just as it is.

Hotel B&B Évora **

The econo-chic ® B&B concept reaches Alentejo with 80 rooms in the new hotel B&B Évora. Another bet in the merger between traditional heritage and contemporary design. Surrounded by the heritage listed sites in this World Heritage town, the hotel B&B Évora retains part of the first facade of the town's bullring. Inside, the decor is minimalist and sophisticated, with notes of dark wood and pictures in black and white of horses from Coudelaria da Ervideira

The hotel has an indoor deck, surrounded by a landscaped area water mirror, where you can have breakfast or enjoy a pleasant late afternoon.

The new hotel B&B Évora is located near the main accesses of the town, in Rua Raimundo street, next to the Mercês Church. The emblematic Giraldo Square is less than 3 minutes away. A prime place for sightseeing and discovering the ramparts, monuments, churches and restaurants that makes the city of Évora always charming.

All the rooms guarantee a good time, according to the "econo-chic ®" concept that best summarizes what the brand B & B offers: 24 hour reception, very comfortable mattress and pillows, plasma screen, air conditioning and excellent soundproofing.

- Free unlimited wi-fi throughout the hotel, including rooms.

Distance between the Hotel and the Congress venue – walking distance to the venue is 1km
